"One of my company goals is not only to assist small businesses in better tracking their accounting and customer information but to also assist them in finding, evaluating, and providing necessary skills to their bookkeeping staff. With the QuickBooks course materials and tests that are available through the Sleeter Group Consultants Network (SGCN), I can more readily meet this need."

— Joan Shumaker
Atlanta, GA

"The Sleeter Group helps me think outside the box to come up with client-friendly solutions, but also keep the financial statements in line. I have come to realize that I'm a better consultant because of the training and reference materials I receive from the Sleeter Group. Being a Sleeter Group consultant has been highly beneficial to my growth as a QuickBooks consultant. I don't know how I'd survive with out your organization."

— Mark Sriccker, CPA

LEARN

Attend our annual Conference to meet your peers and see how our services all come together for you and your practice. Take our informative and entertaining Webinars to learn at your desk. Understand the inner workings of popular accounting software programs such as QuickBooks and QuickBooks Point of Sale with our hands-on textbooks, providing easy-to-understand lessons and exercise files with sample data. Learn from The Sleeter Group, and you'll have the confidence that you're getting the best accounting software education available.

JOIN

Join the most active community of accounting professionals in the U.S. and abroad. The Sleeter Group Consultants Network consists of experts and new professionals who gather live and online to share ideas, tips, techniques and leads. Participate in QuickBooks and Beyond, our interactive blog. Subscribe to our social networking endeavors. Attend local meetings with your peers. Our activities provide up-to-the minute and long-term information about the accounting services profession, including ways to serve your clients better.

GROW

Enhance the services you provide to your existing clients, or expand your practice, with programs and materials from The Sleeter Group. Participate in our Solution Partner Program to offer vetted software solutions to your business clients. Pick up new clients by teaching QuickBooks seminars using our Seminar System. Select staff to add to your practice by giving them our assessment tests. Ensure you are Sleeter-certified to pick up new clients through our Find-a-Consultant Web search. Take advantage of our products and services to build your practice.

By training over 30,000 accounting professionals in accounting technology solutions, The Sleeter Group has earned a national reputation as the highest-quality provider of reference materials, software expertise, and QuickBooks training materials for accounting solutions consultants thus becoming the "graduate school" for accounting professionals serving the small- to medium-sized business market. We have developed a broad range of "best practices" for proper implementation of accounting systems, and we act as the most trusted advisors for the accounting profession and consulting community. The San Francisco Bay Area company was established in 1994.
